

Question:
Where do Greyhound buses leave from in the city where the band that recorded the album Never Too Loud formed?

(a) LLM-only

Generate

The answer to this question is: Greyhound buses leave from the Greyhound station located at 1000 S. 10th St, Kansas City, Missouri. The band that recorded the album "Never Too Loud" is The Black Keys, and they formed in Akron, Ohio.

(b) GraphRAG

Retrieve

- 1) Philadelphia is also a major hub for Greyhound Lines.....
- 2) Never Too Loud is the fourth studio album by Canadian hard rock band Danko Jones
- 3) New York City's public bus fleet is the largest in North America

Generate

I am unable to answer this question.

(c) GraphRAG-R1

Think

1. Identify the band that recorded the album Never Too Loud.
2. Find the city where this band is from.
3. Determine where Greyhound buses leave from in that city.

Query

Who recorded the album Never Too Loud?

Retrieve

<never too loud, by, danko jones>

Think

1. The band that recorded the album Never Too Loud is Danko Jones.
2. Danko Jones, also known as Scott Danko, is a Canadian hard rock band from Brampton, Ontario, Canada.
3. Determine where Greyhound buses leave from in Brampton, Ontario, Canada.

Query

Where does Greyhound bus leave from in Brampton, Ontario?

Retrieve

<toronto coach terminal, was leased to, greyhound canada}>
<toronto coach terminal, is located in, Ontario>

Think

Danko Jones has an album titled Never Too Loud, and they are from Brampton, Ontario, Canada. I searched for where Greyhound buses leave from in Brampton, Ontario. From these queries, I found that the Toronto Coach Terminal might be the hub for both. Therefore, I think Greyhound buses in the city where Danko Jones is from leave from the Toronto Coach Terminal.

Greyhound buses in the city where the band that recorded the album Never Too Loud formed (Brampton, Ontario, Canada) leave from the Toronto Coach Terminal.