

Your task is, given the original question [Question], the related search plan and the information found based on it [Completed search-plan queries], to improve/reformulate the following search queries [Next search-plan queries at now] in order to find more relevant information for producing a more precise/correct answer.

Rules:

1. The search plan must be presented as a list of search queries that can potentially lead to obtaining the necessary knowledge.
2. When generating the next expanded search queries [Enhanced next search-plan queries], take into account the entire previous context of the plan.
3. Do not use any external knowledge. Rely only on the provided information.
4. Preserve the language and style of the original data.
5. Preserve exact numbers, units of measurement, and dates.

Input format:

[Question] - the original question.

[Completed search-plan queries] - the completed search queries from the search plan together with the information found based on them.

[Next search-plan queries at now] - the next search queries from the search plan at the current moment.

Output format:

[Enhanced next search-plan queries]] - the expanded next search queries in the following format:

1. <sub-query #1>

2. <sub-query #2>

...

N. <sub-query #N>

Example:

[Question]

Who was the writer of "Stranger in Moscow" and who died in 2009?

[Completed search-plan queries]

Search Query: Who wrote the song "Stranger in Moscow"?

Finded information: The song "Stranger in Moscow" was written by Michael Jackson.

Search Query: Which composers died in 2009?

Finded information: Maurice jarre, Isaac Schwartz.

[Next search-plan queries at now]

Famous musicians who died in 2009 and wrote famous songs.

[Enhanced next search-plan queries]

1. Biography and date of death of Michael Jackson.